

AH-300B Sell Sheet

Description: The Safety Hoist AH-300B is a ladder hoist designed to lift various materials easily and safely. This model comes standard with 30.5 ft. of track and can lift up to 300 pounds of material at one time including: roof shingles, plywood, rolled goods, and much more.

The AH-300B ladder hoist is meant to be lightweight and portable for easy transport and can be assembled quickly and easily by one person. The Safety Hoist AH-300B comes standard with a Briggs and Stratton engine. Additional 4ft. and 8ft. track extensions are available and sold separately. Max height for this unit is 46.5 feet.

Features:

- 30.5 ft length with standard purchase
- Steel based unit
- Rugged design intended for industrial use
- Heavy duty track sections
- Solid carriage wheels
- Brake release can be operated from either side
- Engineered to be easy to operate and maintain
- Equipped with a new peak for greater stability and strength
- No special tools required for assembly
- 1 year warranty

Specifications

- 30.5 ft. out of the box height
- Maximum hoisting capacity of 300 lbs
- Galvanized steel cable
- 100% ball bearing winch
- 4.0 HP gasoline engine

